Housing To Be Tight in San Diego

"It is almost impossible to obtain a hotel or motel room in San Diego during the summer months without long standing reservations," writes Catharine Edgerton, publicity chairman for the 1968 convention. Needless to say you should get your reservations in early – better NOW!

Vince Bacon, the housing chairman, has checked the listed motels which are all within easy reach of convention headquarters. The El Cortez Hotel and those places indicated in the immediate area have a capacity of 1600 rooms.

For your convenience, the following form may be used without destroying a single important page of the magazine. Cut along the dotted line and send your request for room reservations to Mrs. Mary Menko, supervisor, San Diego Convention and Visitors Bureau, 330 "A" Street, San Diego, California 92101, giving 1st, 2nd and 3rd choice. Please make checks payable to the Convention and Visitors Bureau.

Wally Pitchford, left, sales manager of the El Cortez, discusses convention arrangements with Vince Bacon, housing chairman, in preparation for the ANA's 77th anniversary convention.
